Introduction

The purpose of this document is to provide a detailed analysis report of the functional requirements of the first delivery of the project “Acme-SF-D01”, for the subject “Design and Testing 2”. More specifically, this document conforms to the supplementary requirements sections of the student #2 inside the “Managerial requirements” subsection.

Contents

Intentionally blank.

Conclusions

The analysis report for the functional requirements that were provided in the “contents” section proved satisfactory, as no discordance was needed to mend for this first delivery.

Bibliography
